

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LA LISTE NAMES THE INN AT LITTLE WASHINGTON D.C.'S TOP RESTAURANT

“La Liste”, a new guide to the world’s best restaurants, has listed the top one thousand greatest restaurants in the world. The Guide was created by France’s Foreign Ministry which used the unique approach of compiling numerous evaluations, including The Guide Michelin, The Forbes Travel Guide and the Zagat Survey. The Inn at Little Washington in Washington, Virginia received a score 94.75. It was ranked #13 in the U.S. and is one of the top 150 restaurants in the world. The Inn was also the only restaurant included on La Liste from the Washington DC and Mid-Atlantic region.

This year, The Guide Michelin awarded The Inn Two Stars, which helped it climb from #600 in last year’s La Liste ratings to its current position. “All of us here are delighted with this exciting news and the dramatic forward momentum” said Patrick O’Connell, Chef/Proprietor of The Inn.

About The Inn at Little Washington:

The Inn at Little Washington now in its 38th year is located in the historic village of Washington, Virginia in the shadow of the Blue Ridge Mountains, 67 miles west of the nation's capital. The Inn has been a culinary destination since it opened in a former garage in 1978. Among its many accolades, The Inn has received five James Beard Awards including Best Restaurant in America and Best Chef in the US, and received two stars from Michelin in their first Washington DC Guide in 2016. It is the longest tenured Forbes 5 Star restaurant in America.

For additional information or to request images please contact: Rachel Hayden, Director of Public Relations (540) 675-5238 rhayden@theinnatlittlewashington.com.

Middle and Main Streets, Washington, Virginia 22747
www.theinnatlittlewashington.com